Insurance Package for ANCY Members

As part of membership benefits, ANCY is pleased to be able to offer special rates for a group liability insurance plan through Halpenny Insurance Brokers Ltd. They brokered a deal, which may represent substantial savings to ANCY members, underwritten through Premier Insurance Underwriting Services.

Who Are ANCY Members?

Individuals and organizations invested in expanding the children & youth arts sector.

Why Become ANCY Member?

Be part of the growing network and contribute to creating vibrant communities where all children and youth have access to the arts.

What is ANCY?

Arts Network for Children and Youth (ANCY) is a non-profit arts service organization, national in scope. ANCY plays a leadership role in supporting sustainable arts programming for children and youth in communities across Canada.

What Does ANCY Do?

- ✚ Links artists and organizations working with children and youth across Canada
- ✚ Connects diverse community sectors with the arts including justice, social services, health and education
- ✚ Gathers and disseminates research data to support the value of the arts from early childhood through to young emerging artists
- ✚ Advocates benefits of the arts for children and youth to all levels of government
- ✚ Works with communities to develop pilot sites, modeling innovative and emerging infrastructure and programming
- ✚ Develops toolkits for communities and youth - information and guidelines for mobilizing, funding, infrastructure and programming
- ✚ Organizes conferences to educate the public and increase awareness about the arts and youth sector
- ✚ Connects youth artists from across Canada and internationally both in person and virtually.
